

SUCCOT 2010

Succot, The Feast of Tabernacle begins Wednesday evening, September 22, 2010 - four days after Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. The solemnity and awe of the High Holy Days is followed by the joy and activity of Succot. In the words of the Torah, this joy is expressed in the Mitzvah of Lulav and Etrog.

“And ye shall take you on the first day of the fruit of goodly trees, and the bough of thick trees and willows of the brook, and ye shall keep it a fest unto the Lord seven days in the year.”

We have long felt that our children should be encouraged to actively participate in this beautiful Mitzvah, as of course adults are required to.

The Congregation has made arrangements to make Etrog and Lulav available to every child in the school at the nominal fee of $34.00 per set. The adult set is $48.00.

Below is an order form, which should be completed and returned with payment in full made out to Congregation Ohav Sholom, to the Synagogue Office no later than Monday, September 13, 2010. Etrogim and Lulavim will be available to be picked up at the Synagogue Office on Monday, September 20 from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM and /or Tuesday, September 21 10:00 AM - 1:00 PM.

(PLEASE - TEAR OFF, COMPLETE, RETURN WITH PAYMENT)
